Friday, February 3, 2017 the Winter Colony luncheon meeting was held at the Coral Reef Yacht Club in Coconut Grove; Colony Captain Jon Stemples was our host. The program speaker was Biscayne National Park Ranger Gary Bremen on “Why National Parks? Celebrating the National Park Service’s Centennial”. He shared his experiences visiting and working at the National Parks throughout the states. He brought a magnetic map where each member was encouraged to mark the location of their home, he then discussed nearby National Parks. He encouraged the audience to share 5 word comments on their favorite National Park.

Friday, March 31, 2017 the Spring Colony luncheon meeting was held at the Coral Reef Yacht Club in Coconut Grove; Colony Captain Jon Stemples was our host. The program speaker was Meteorologist Max Mayfield, former director of the National Hurricane Center. His extensive Power Point presentation followed the impact on weather during the past centenaries. He very graciously entertained all questions at the end of his presentation.
