GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Fellow Florida Mayflower Society Members:

I'd like to thank all of you for the honor of representing you as your Governor for the next three years. I'd also like to thank Governor Ren for his great leadership in keeping our "ship on an even keel" for the past three years and to his entire Board – it has been my pleasure to serve with you.

I was extremely excited to have my family present to witness the occasion – wife Kathleen; son Steven (CT); granddaughter Meaghan, her husband Joseph & their son James (WA); granddaughter Erin (MA). Steven, Meaghan, Erin & James are member of the James Chilton Colony.

All Spring Board Meetings have been moved to the last Saturday of April each year – this should assist our Colonies in their future planning – the Spring 2015 BOA Meeting will be held on Saturday, 25 April 2015 at The Holiday Inn Express Tampa North – Temple Terrace (Tampa) FL. Our Fall Meeting & BOA Meetings will be held as follows:

- 20-21 November 2015 James Chilton Colony – The Villages
- 18-19 November 2016 Henry Samson Colony – Fort Myers
- 17-18 November 2017 James Chilton Colony – The Villages
- 16-17 November 2018 John Alden Colony – Fort Lauderdale
- 22-23 November 2019 Elder Brewster Colony – Miami
- 20-21 November 2020 – Gov. William Bradford Colony – St. Petersburg

As we embark on another term, one of my primary goals is to continue to improve our communications between GSMD and our State BOA – the State BOA and our Colonies – and our Colonies and their membership – this is extremely important, especially to new members.

We want to be able to continue to report that our membership is growing and anticipate ideas forwarded to us from all of our State colonies. We will continue to update and improve our bylaws as needed under the leadership of Deputy Governor Jim Preston. We will continue to set up new committees, as needed, for establishing guidelines for State meetings, compiling a list of available speakers for Colony meetings and gathering thoughts for Florida's involvement in the 2020 celebration. Kathleen and I are looking forward to visiting all 16 Florida Colonies within the next three years, beginning with our visit to the Standish Colony on 9 January and Chilton Colony on 17 January. Thank you for your support and we look forward to our anticipated visits.

Governor Kenneth E. Carter

EDWARD DOTY COLONY

April showers brought Mayflower descendants and guests to Azalea Trace for our colony's springtime luncheon. We had a delicious cold plate lunch consisting of tomato stuffed with chicken salad, a large fresh fruit salad accompanied by banana bread and drinks. For dessert everyone enjoyed cheesecake with blueberry drizzle.

Ellen Addison introduced our guest speaker, Patricia McCullers, (photo at right) whose program was entitled "Mayflower: After the Landing." She addressed many of the hardships that were endured and related how some of these in today's world are difficult to imagine, such as wearing rough burlap type clothing for a month without bathing, or needing building supplies without heading off to Home Depot. Yes, we all admire the fortitude our ancestors showed to make their journey to the new world and make it home.

WILLIAM MULLINS COLONY

The Fall membership meeting of the William Mullins Colony was held Saturday 18 Oct 2014 at the Elks Lodge #286 in Ocala. The scheduled speaker was Nelson Albrecht whose topic was "The First Comers."

RICHARD WARREN COLONY

The Fall membership meeting of the Richard Warren Colony was held Saturday 8 Nov 2014 at the San Jose Country Club in Jacksonville with 20 members and guests present. Members introduced themselves and their guests, one of whom was Suzanne Sachatello, a prospective member descended from John Howland. After lunch, deputy colony governor Alice Clark introduced the guest speaker, Jeffrey Spear, the President and Owner of Studio Spear, a leading global marketing consultancy operating from Jacksonville Beach. While not a chef, Spear has obtained culinary training from schools in Australia and the United States and is the author of two cookbooks "Yum: Tasty Recipes from Culinary Greats" and "The First Coast Heritage Cookbook." Spear spoke on the subject of "14,000 Years of Culinary History along the First Coast." At the conclusion of the program, Clark presented Spear with a certificate of appreciation as a small token of appreciation for his appearance.

Governor Selsor reported on the transition of Colony leadership for 2014-2017, beginning with a swearing in of the remaining colony officers who had not been sworn in at the April meeting. In the photo at left, from L to R: captain Ernie Wilkes, treasurer Ron Dailey, secretary John Howland, deputy governor Alice Clark, governor Harry Selsor, elder N, Miles Schueth and historian Mary Ellen Boyd.

Treasurer Ron Dailey reported on the state of the colony's finances, which are strong. He distributed a copy of the complete financial report of the colony for calendar year 2014 to date, showing all receipts and disbursements and also showing the funds on hand as of November 7, 2014.

Historian Mary Ellen Boyd reported that since the previous meeting, 2 new members have been accepted (Cynthia Grossberg & John Howland), that 1 application is now pending approval at GSMD headquarters in Plymouth, and that she is working with several additional prospective members whose applications are in various stages of completion.

Past deputy governor Jon Wheeler, on behalf of himself and his brother, past governor Richard Wheeler (in absentia), presented governor Selsor a "Governor's Neck Medallion" (engraved on the front "FL—Richard Warren Colony") as a gift to the colony, to be worn proudly by governor Selsor (and his successors) at any and all Mayflower activities.

JAMES CHILTON COLONY

The third annual Thanksgiving luncheon of the James Chilton Colony was held Saturday 8 Nov 2014 at the Pimlico Recreation Center in The Villages. Colony governor Scrib Kelly called the meeting to order and welcomed all members and guests. The invocation was given by colony treasurer (and FSMD Deputy Governor) Ken Carter. The pledge to the US flag and the salute to the Mayflower flag were led by colony captain Shirley Smith, who also read The Mayflower Compact.

Following the catered lunch of roast turkey with stuffing and all the fixins', the ancestors' roll call was read by colony historian Tom Hodges and the treasurer's report was given by

JOHN HOWLAND COLONY

Twenty-two members and guests of the John Howland Colony gathered for the Fall membership meeting on Monday 3 November 2014 at the Mayflower Retirement Center in Winter Park, FL. The meeting was called to order at 12 noon by colony governor Hank Dressel. Following the Invocation, Pledge of Allegiance to the US flag and the Salute to the Mayflower Society flag, guests and prospective members were introduced and the Roll Call of Ancestors was held.

Governor Hank introduced the program "George and Martha Washington" Bill and Cara Elder (see photo below) who talked about the Washington's transition from Commander-in-Chief of the Continental Army to private citizen and becoming the first President of the United States of America. Even though the British had surrendered at Yorktown, there was much to be accomplished for the new nation to become whole. He resigned his commission as Commander-in-Chief to become a private citizen but his retirement to Mount Vernon was short-lived. He participated in the Constitutional Convention and fought hard for financial justice for the Army. While he tried to stay a private citizen, he was elected unanimously as the first President of the United States. During this period Martha, who had actively participated in support for George during the war, actively supported her husband as he worked hard to help his new nation become successful. Bill and Cara were wonderful and their bringing to life this period in the lives of George and Martha Washington was well received by all present.

MYLES STANDISH COLONY

The Fall meeting of the Myles Standish Colony was held on Thursday 6 November 2014 at the Longshore Lakes Country Club in Naples, FL. The menu consisted of traditional Thanksgiving fare – turkey and all of the trimmings. Also served was a very special birthday cake with ice cream to honor colony member Edith Sachs (photo at left), who celebrated her 100th birthday in November. Edith C. Sachs was born 8 Nov 1914 in Dayton, Ohio. Her love for history and family genealogy was passed on to her from her grandparents and parents. The Cushman Genealogy book was given to her mother from her grandmother. This book provided the history of Mayflower ancestors Isaac Allerton, John Howland, and John Tilley. Edith joined the Myles Standish Colony around 1978-79 at the invitation of then colony governor, Jane E. Grunwell. Edith served as colony governor herself from 1993-1996. She has always been an active member, having served in many capacities. Her friendships are many and enduring.

The guest speaker was W. Richard (Dick) Hazen (photo at right), historian and former Myles Standish colony governor (2008-2011), whose topic was "The Remarkable Mary (Fish) (Noyes) (Silliman) Dickinson." Mary was the great, great granddaughter of John and Priscilla Alden, as well as the third great grandddaughter of Richard Warren, and outlived three husbands. Dick published an article regarding this topic in the March/June 2014 issue of The Mayflower Quarterly. Dick's power point presentation used scenes from the movie made about Mary called "Mary Silliman's War." A central theme of his presentation was the civilian conflict which went on in the 13 colonies during the Revolutionary War – Loyalists vs Rebels – and how it pitted neighbor against neighbor and friends, including the fear which existed for non-combatants on an everyday basis along the shore of Connecticut and how civilians had to flee from their homes ahead of marauding raiders.

The colony elected new officers for the 2015-2017 term, as follows:

Vice Governor	Nancy Ratner
Recording Secretary	Nancy Lemkin
Corresponding Secretary	Ron Benson
Treasurer	Nancy Talleur
Historian	Angie Wakefield
Elder	Alicia Heusser-Purple
Captain	Michael Garey
Director	Nancy Fodi

One of these offices, that of Corresponding Secretary, will be newly effective upon approval of the proposed By-law change. The primary responsibilities of the Corresponding Secretary will be preparation of the colony newsletter, maintaining/updating the membership/ mailing list, and printing and mailing of the newsletter.

HENRY SAMSON COLONY

Forty-four members and guests of the Henry Samson Colony met for lunch on Wednesday 18 Nov 2014 at The Helm Club in The Landings, south of Fort Myers in Lee County, FL. Governor Clyde Blanchard opened the meeting.

Among members present were State Society Historian and AG Muriel Cushing and Stafe Society Governor, and General Society Captain General, Ren Cushing (photo at right).

Nominatins committee chair Muriel Cushing presented the following slate of nominees for colony office, all of whom were unanimously elected and then installed by Governor Ren:

Governor	Ellen Full
Vie Governor	Clyde Blanchard
Treasurer	Anne McGuire
Secretary	Mary Keiser
Elder	Bill Cox
Captain	Albert Myers
Historian	Bob Haff
Director	Connie Lizak
Director	Larry Peck
Director	Muriel Cushing

members & guests awaiting the program (L-R):
Connie Lizak, Mary Keiser,
Julia Monastero, Ellen Parmerter and Stanley Parmerter

A raffle was held for a beautiful Mayflower afghan to raise money for the colony's scholarship fund. The winner of the raffle was Connie Lizak.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Received Oct 10th:

Letter To The Editor and Associates;

I thoroughly enjoy the Newsletter that you prepare and distribute via email. It is very well done and informative. Best of all, it recognizes the membership with pictures and appropriate narrative.

Reading the pdf file is a bit challenging for me because it is an eye test, but at my age, that is OK. Magnifying glasses work just fine. {Editor's Note: When you open a pdf file on your computer, you have a built-in magnifying glass which can make the text appear larger or smaller. Immediately above the text of the pdf file is a taskbar with numerous buttons to perform functions such as "open file," "print file," "attach file to email" etc. Two-thirds of the way across that taskbar is a white box with a % number in it ... click on the arrow to the right of that box and select 150%. The text of the pdf file should fill your entire screen and be easier to read.]

I do realize that to send the newsletter out to individual members requires a little more work, but I do appreciate the effort since I am not comfortable with going out to any website if I can help it. However, if it comes down to going out to a website, I will learn enough to live with it.

Thank you for what you are doing.

2014 FSMD ANNUAL MEETING

Eighty members and guests of the Florida Society gathered at the Holiday Inn—Lakewood Ranch in Sarasota on Friday and Saturday 21-22 Nov 2014 for the 77th annual members' meeting hosted by the Elizabeth Tilley Colony. Friday evening was devoted to a social hour followed by the traditional Mayflower Banquet. Saturday was devoted to business: the Fall meeting of the State Board of Assistants (BoA) followed by the general membership meeting.

Governor Ren Cushing (photo at right) opened the Friday festivities by welcoming all in attendance, with special recognition given to former (2002-2005) state Governor George M. Allerton IV of Allerton Colony. A color guard from the ROTC program at nearby Palmetto High School presented the colors, then Captain Jim Preston led all in the pledge of allegiance to the US flag and the salute to the Mayflower Society flag. Governor Ren and Captain Jim joined in presenting the members of the color guard with a certificate of FSMD's appreciation for their participation.

Governor Ren presented state Treasurer (and Howland Colony governor) Hank Dressel with the Governor General's "Commendation Award for Outstanding Service" which had been awarded at the 40th GSMD General Congress in September in Plymouth. The certificate states that, "as Treasurer, he worked unselfishly to assist colony treasurers and doggedly completed the so important 501(c)(3) application process." Hank is an invaluable member of the Florida Society and we all join in congratulating him on his well-deserved recognition.

Prior to the serving of a delicious traditional Thanksgiving dinner (diner's choice of ham or turkey), a special ceremony was held: the re-enactment of the marriage of Elizabeth Tilley and John Howland. Elizabeth traveled on the Mayflower

ents, John Tilley and Joan Hurst Tilley. John and Joan both died the first winter as did his brother Edward Tilley and wife Ann. This left Elizabeth an orphan and so she was taken in by the Carver family. The Carvers died about a year later, and part of their estate was inherited by their servant, John Howland, and Elizabeth became his ward. Although the date of their marriage is not recorded, it's probable that it occurred before 1624, since the first of their ten children, Desire, was born that year.

Hopkins Colony governor Alvene Watson (photo at left) acted as narrator, while FSMD AG and Historian Muriel Cushing played Elizabeth, FSMD Deputy Governor Ken Carter played Howland, Carter's son Steven from CT (and a member of the Chilton Colony) played Isaac Allerton who most likely acted as civil magistrate in performing the ceremony, and Cooke Colony vice governor Ruth Ann Fay played one of the witnesses.

The colonists would have celebrated Elizabeth and John's wedding with a grand feast, so it was fitting that we all celebrated the re-enactment with our Mayflower Banquet.

Following our meal, John Mange (photo at left) as governor of the host Elizabeth Tilley Colony welcomed everyone to Sarasota and introduced the guest speaker, John Beale (photo at right), Education and Volunteer Coordinator of the Florida Maritime Museum in Cortez, FL. John has worked at the Agricultural Museum in Flagler County and at the Colonial Spanish Quarter in St. Augustine. He earned his degree from the University of West Florida during which time he took part in archeological excavations in Florida and Georgia. John has presented living history demonstrations throughout the Southeast for over nine years and has a focus on Florida history especially the colonial era. His topic was "Florida's First Colonists," focusing on the three attempts by the Spanish at colonization and the one attempt by the French at Fort Caroline. His illustrated talk was both informative and entertaining.

Newly elected Standish Colony governor Don Cahill

The Saturday business session opened with a 15-minute meeting of the State BoA. Seven of the eight state officers were present, as were the colony governors (or a designated representative of the governor) of all 16 FSMD colonies. Each colony reported the names of its members recommended to be dropped from active membership for failure to pay 2014 dues. FSMD had 1308 total members during November and a motion was made, seconded and carried that the Secretary remove 32 delinquent members from the active membership roll before 31 Dec 2014. In response to a question from the floor, Counsellor Wheeler advised that any member reported as delinquent and included in the list to be dropped would not be dropped if s/he paid 2014 dues in full before the end of this year. Only the State BoA (not the individual colonies) has the authority to drop a member from active (i.e., "in good standing") status. Such action must be taken before year-end in order that FSMD can avoid paying national dues to GSMD for members from whom FSMD has received no current dues payments.

Governor Cushing (photo at left) called the general members' meeting to order promptly at 9am. The invocation was given by Suzanne Adams, Elder Nominee, since illness prevented Elder Jean Albrecht from attending. The pledge to the US flag and the salute to the Mayflower Society flag were led by Captain Jim Preston. Governor Cushing noted that more than twenty FSMD regular and life members were present and, therefore, a quorum was present for the transaction of lawful business.

A solemn memorial service for members departed during the past year was conducted by Suzanne Adams assisted by Tilley Colony elder Jim Collins. See photo at top of the following page. We lost 25 members from 12 of our 16 colonies in the past year. Members from each colony stood in respect and honor as their fellow colonists' names were read.

Secretary Brabham read the written report filed by DGG Fran Lopus about her attendance at the 40th General Congress in Plymouth last September.

Jim Collins & Suzanne Adams

FSMD officers' and committee chairs' reports were given. Treasurer Hank Dressel reported on the strong financial condition of the Florida Society. A motion was made, seconded and carried to approve the budget presented for 2015. Historian Muriel Cushing reported that we had 110 new members join since the 2013 annual meeting. Junior Membership Chair Jim Preston reported that 74 juniors aged out this year while 6 have converted from junior to regular membership. We have 55 new junior members, bringing total junior membership to 960 ... 194 in Bradford Colony alone! In 2015, 60 will be eligible to convert and, if they fail to do so, will age out. Jim read a letter he had sent to Governor Cushing praising the exemplary work done promoting the junior program by members David and Mary Kitchen of Dunedin, FL. Education Chair Laura Brock reported she had followed up with 2014 scholarship winner Grace Winslow who is enrolled at Kenyon College in Gambier, OH, and is still interested in pursuing a pre-med course of study. Grace has won a spot on the women's tennis team by winning 85% of her matches. Colony governors' reports were given or reported as having been filed with the Secretary.

Under new business, a motion was made, seconded and unanimously carried that FSMD's bylaws be amended to read as stated in the special Summer 2014 issue of The Florida Pilgrim. Governor Cushing thanked Bylaws Committee Chair Ken Carter and the members of his committee, all of whom were present, for their tireless and valuable work.

Governor Cushing reported on the results of the work of the Nominating Committee, who recommended the election of the following officers for the 2014-2017 term: Governor—Ken Carter; Deputy Governor—Jim Preston; Secretary—Jessie Brabham; Treasurer—Hank Dressel; Historian—Muriel Cushing; Captain—Helen Bennett; Elder—Suzanne Adams; Counsellor—Richard Wheeler; and BoA members-at-large Laura Brock, Alvene Watson and Ron Dailey. Governor Cushing asked 3 times if there were any additional nominations from the floor and there were none. A motion was made, seconded and carried that the above slate be unanimously elected. Governor Cushing then conducted an installation ceremony, after which he passed the insignia of office (i.e., the gavel and governor's neck medallion) to new Governor Ken Carter (see photo at left).

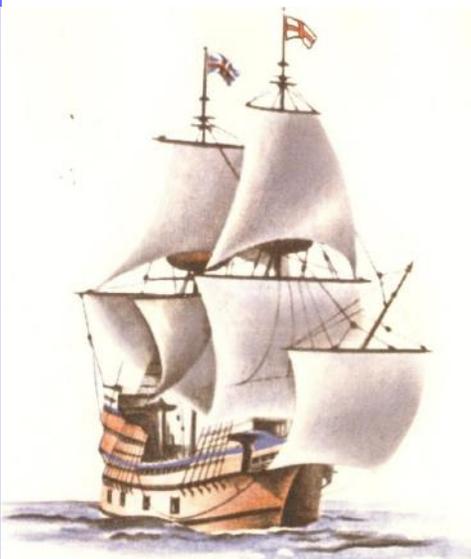

FSMD's new representatives on GSMD's General BoA: DGG Muriel Cushing and AG Ren Cushing. Ren is also a member of GSMD's Executive Committee by virtue of his election as Captain General for 2014-2017.

The Mayflower Compact was read by new Captain Helen Bennett, a courtesy resolution was presented by new Deputy Governor Jim Preston to Tilley Colony governor John Mange (see photo below) and the benediction was given by new Elder Suzanne Adams. The 2015 annual meeting will be hosted by the James Chilton Colony in The Villages on 20-21 Nov 2015.
